MEETING OF THE MINISTERS OF DEFENCE OF SOUTH-EASTERN EUROPEAN PARTNERSHIP FOR PEACE PARTICIPATING STATES, REGIONAL NATO MEMBER STATES GREECE AND TURKEY, AS WELL AS NATO MEMBERS ITALY AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

SOFIA, 3 OCTOBER 1997

JOINT STATEMENT

1. The Ministers of Defence of South-Eastern European Partnership for Peace[1] participating states, regional NATO member states Greece and Turkey, as well as NATO members Italy and the United States of America: Mr. Gueorgui ANANIEV, Mr. Sabit BROKAJ, Mr. Lazar KITANOSKI, Mr. Apostolos TSOHATZOPOULOS, Mr. Beniamino ANDREATTA, Mr. Victor BABIUC, Mr. Tit TURNSEK, Mr. Ismet SEZGIN and Mr. William COHEN, the representative of the Secretary General of NATO Ambassador Klaus-Peter KLAIBER, the Representative of the Chairman-in-Office of the OSCE Ambassador William FRIIS-MOLLER and the Representative of the Secretary General of WEU Mr. Peter HESSE met in Sofia on 3 October 1997.

2. Representatives of the Ministers of defence of Belgium, Canada, The Czech Republic, Denmark, France, Germany, Hungary, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Spain, the Netherlands and the United Kingdom also attended the meeting as observers.

3. Guided by the objectives and the purposes of the process started with the March 1996 Tirana Defence Ministerial and continuing it in the spirit of the Madrid declaration on Euro- Atlantic security and cooperation and the inauguration of the Euro-Atlantic Partnership Council;

4. Recalling the spirit of relevant chapters of the Sofia and Thessaloniki Declarations on Good-Neigbourly Relations, Stability, Security and Cooperation in the Balkans, adopted by the Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the Countries of South-Eastern Europe;

5. Aiming to strengthen and broaden the stability and security in the region of South-Eastern Europe, thus contributing to achieve just and lasting order of peace based on human rights, freedom and democracy for Europe as a whole;

6. Reaffirming their commitment to the Euro-Atlantic values which will guide their individual and collective policies;

7. The Ministers confirm their governments' determination to promote good neighbourly relations and constructive cooperation in the field of defence and security among participating states.

8. The Ministers believe that the strong and dynamic transatlantic link will remain the bedrock of the European security and stability and the main guarantee for a free and prosperous Europe. They share the view that NATO continues to be the major driving force in the construction of an inclusive European security architecture in close cooperation with the WEU thus contributing to the building of a European Security and Defence Identity within the Alliance. In this spirit the role of the OSCE as a primary instrument for preventing conflict, strengthening security and advancing democracy and human rights is also underlined. They also take note of the positive contribution towards this goal of subregional economic and political structures, such as the CEI, SECI, the Royaumont process, the Black Sea Economic Cooperation and the South-Eastern European Foreign Ministers Conference.

9. The Ministers welcome NATO's declared intention to extend further invitations in coming years to democratic countries willing and able to assume the responsibilities and obligations of the membership, whose inclusion would serve the overall political and statigic interests of the Alliance and would enhance overall European security and stability. They note with satisfaction the recognition by the NATO Madrid Summit of the need to build greater stability, security and regional cooperation in the South-Eastern Europe and to promote their increasing integration into the Euro-Atlantic community.

10. The Ministers believe that the process generated in Tirana and accelerated by the Sofia Defense Ministerial[2] is an important vehicle for a closer integration with the Trans-Atlantic community, including NATO. In this framework, they could consider favourably opening of this process to other South-Eastern European countries once conditions make that appropriate.

11. They agree that the integration of Southeastern European states with European security organizations, including NATO, would be facilitated by the expansion of regional defense cooperation and confidence- and security-building measures.

12. The Ministers stress that the strengthening of the civilian control of military forces and their adaptation through restructuring so as to achieve improved interoperability with NATO are essential qualifications for membership in the Alliance and other western institutions.

13. They welcome the establishment of the Euro-Atlantic Partnership Council[3], which provides an overarching framework for consultations among its members on a broad range of political and security related issues. The Ministers agree that the regional dimension of the EAPC process will increase the scope for consultations and cooperation on these issues thus forming an essential element in the common endeavour of their countries to enhance security and stability in the region of South-Eastern Europe.

14. Recalling The Basic Document of the EAPC and the Madrid Declaration on Euro-Atlantic Security and Cooperation, the Ministers declare their governments' support and readiness to contribute to the development of concrete initiatives for an enhanced EAPC cooperation in South-Eastern Europe and the Black sea region to address security risks and challenges.

[2] Hereinafter referred to as SDM
[3] Hereinafter referred to as EAPC

15. The Ministers emphasize the importance of enhanced regional defence cooperation in the framework of PfP. Participation in peacekeeping efforts, joint civil emergency planning, disaster relief activities and coordinated measures to strengthen environmental security are seen as key elements of such cooperation.

16. Following their thorough discussions, the Ministers agree to advance a set of activities and measures specified in the Annex to this Joint Statement, as concrete next steps in their governments' cooperation.

17. The Ministers agree that Ministerials should take place on a yearly basis in order to streamline and enhance regional cooperation. The next meeting will be held in Skopje in October 1998.

THE SOFIA DEFENCE MINISTERIAL FOLLOW-UP MEASURES AND ACTIVITIES

Fifty-second session
FIRST COMMITTEE

Letter dated 28 October 1997 from the Chairman of the Fifth Committee to the Chairman of the First Committee

I wish to draw your attention to the concerns raised repeatedly by the delegations of the Fifth Committee both during formal meetings and informal consultations at the current session of the General Assembly regarding the tendency of substantive committees to involve themselves in budgetary and administrative matters.

In this connection, I should like to refer to section IV of General Assembly resolution 45/248 on the procedures for administrative and budgetary matters, whereby the Assembly reaffirmed that the Fifth Committee is the appropriate Main Committee of the General Assembly entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters, as well as the role of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions. In the same resolution, the Assembly expressed its concern at the tendency of its substantive committees and other intergovernmental bodies to involve themselves in administrative and budgetary matters.

Further, rule 153 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly states:

> "No resolution involving expenditure shall be recommended by a committee for approval by the General Assembly unless it is accompanied by an estimate of expenditures prepared by the Secretary-General. No resolution in respect of which expenditures are anticipated by the Secretary-General shall be voted by the General Assembly until the Administrative and Budgetary Committee (Fifth Committee) has had an opportunity of stating the effect of the proposal upon the budget estimates of the United Nations."

Accordingly, when a Main Committee is about to adopt a draft resolution involving expenditures recommended for approval by the General Assembly, the Secretary-General submits a statement of programme budget implications. It goes without saying that the primary responsibility of your Committee, in respect of the consideration of a statement by the Secretary-General on programme budget implications, is to review the programmatic aspect of it, leaving the consideration of the financial aspects to the Fifth Committee.

Taking into account the rules of procedure of the General Assembly and General Assembly resolutions 41/213, 42/211 and 45/248, by which the Assembly reaffirmed the role of the Fifth Committee as the competent Main Committee that considers all reports of the Secretary-General with the administrative and financial implications and the related reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, I would appreciate it very much that, in the course of your consideration of any proposal, the financial aspects be left aside for the appropriate and necessary decision of the Fifth Committee.

I should be grateful if the above concerns and necessary clarifications are brought to the attention of your Committee and taken into account in your deliberations on draft proposals.
